

DAVE SCANLAN

FORMER CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, SODEXO GOVERNMENT NORTH AMERICA

Dave Scanlan most recently was the CEO of Sodexo Government, North America responsible for over $400 million in business serving the U.S. and Canadian government markets. With $9.8 billion in annual revenues in the U.S. and Canada, Sodexo's 133,000 employees provide more than 100 unique services that improve performance for 9,000 client partners and improve Quality of Life for 15 million consumers every day.

Dave is an accomplished Senior Executive with over 30 years of in-depth, hands-on, “roll up your sleeves” experience. His background includes extensive knowledge and experience in financial analysis and planning, internal controls and corporate governance.

During his tenure with Sodexo, Dave contributed to Sodexo’s growth as a member of the worldwide Sodexo global Senior Leader’s group and the Sodexo North America Regional Leadership Committee. He has held positions at both the Corporate level and in Business units including Finance Director, Assistant Treasurer, Vice-President for Treasury and Finance, and two Chief Financial Officer roles overseeing business in the U.S., Canada and Mexico. He worked internationally for Sodexo in operations and has provided executive leadership for several strategic initiatives.

A committed supporter of the Military community, in 2012, as a member of the American Patriots Campaign Leadership Cabinet, he led the creation of the Sodexo Scholarship Fund with the Marine Corps Scholarship Foundation. In 2013, he was honored with the Annual Globe and Anchor Award given to notable industry leaders for their stewardship of the Foundation’s mission. In 2014, Mr. Scanlan was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Armed Services YMCA (ASYMCA) and subsequently elected Treasurer.

He has served on the Boards of Directors for Nana Management Services, a certified Minority Business Enterprise, and the Sodexo Foundation.

Dave holds a B.S. degree in Accounting from Bentley University.
