

WILLIAM ZAMAGNI CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER | ARMED SERVICES YMCA

As the Chief Financial Officer, Bill Zamagni is responsible for directing the Armed Services YMCA financial operations and making strategic decisions based on the organization's financial stability. Bill has more than 20 years of executive, financial, and operational leadership experience managing global multi-million-dollar programs. Bill served over 26 years in the Marine Corps and retired as a Colonel in 2017. He began his Marine Corps career as a helicopter pilot flying AH-1W Super Cobras followed by diverse operational and staff assignments around the world to include the command of a Marine Light Attack Helicopter Squadron and a tour in the United Kingdom with the British Royal Marines.

Since transitioning from the Marine Corps, Bill has served as the Chief Financial Officer for two distinct non-profit organizations. As the CFO, Treasurer, and Vice President of the NavyMarine Corps Relief Society, he managed over $200 million in funds for a non-profit military aid society dedicated to assisting Sailors, Marines, and their families in financial need. Prior to joining ASYMCA, Bill was the CFO for CAF America Group, a large donor advised fund and global grant making organization with annual contributions in excess of $510 Million and a $110 annual operating budget.

Bill earned a Master of Science in National Resource Strategy from the National Defense University, a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from Boston University, and graduated from Tufts University with a Bachelor's degree in International Relations. In his leisure time, he is an avid baseball fan, hiker, bicyclist and a certified baseball umpire.
