

HEATHER T. WILSON

Heather T. Wilson is Executive Vice President, Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO) for Astrion, a company committed to innovation and customer progress in the U.S. Government's Civilian, Defense, and Space communities.

Heather brings more than 25 years of human resource leadership experience to Astrion. Her experience designing talent-focused strategies to accelerate growth aligns with Astrion's goal of being the mission-focused, innovative, and responsive partner for our customers.

Previously, she was at SAIC as Senior Vice President for their Defense and Civilian Sector. Before SAIC, Heather held positions of increasing responsibility at Northrop Grumman, including serving as Sector Vice President of Human Resources for both the Defense Systems and Technology Services sectors.

Wilson currently serves on the board of directors for the Armed Services YMCA, a 501(c)3 nonprofit that serves active-duty military members and their families, through youth development, healthy living, and social responsibility. In addition, she is a member of the WashingtonExec HR Council.

Wilson has a Bachelor of Science in business administration from Capella University, and she is a certified Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) and Certified Compensation Professional (CCP). She is also a veteran of the United States Navy.

WashingtonExec has recognized Heather as a "Top HR Exec to Watch" in 2022 and 2023.